Earn-out period in a M&A transaction: What happens if the parties have not defined it?

A two-year earn-out period defined by the courts (by filling a contractual gap).

Fundamental error in the context of M&A transactions: reversing the irreversible?

Rescission with retroactive effect of a share purchase agreement because of a fundamental error.